During my time here I've been supported and taught by a bunch of really nice, talented group of people. In no particular order I'd like to acknowledge the following:

For our conversations and your support,
Denise Milne,
Andrew Cook,
Paul Gault,
Martin Skelly.

For helping me to coding, laser cut, 3D print, and solder,
Ali Napier,
Rob Jackson,
Connor.

For your company and your pints,
Euan Burns,
Rory Doyle.

For your cigarettes,
Josh Sneddon.
